Brad Meyer – brief business intro

All professional activities are focused on helping people work together more effectively - through communicating more effectively - in person and via technology.

Partner in three companies: Collaboration Ltd, Interaction Technologies Ltd and Vision Enabler Ltd

Work experience

First contract as an independent consultant was in 1995 within the oil sector. Providing services within this sector have been on-going since – encompassing various activities in Executive, Upstream, Downstream and Corporate Function-specific work.

- ✓ Collaboration Ltd achieved bp-preferred coaching service status in April 2004.
- ✓ Interaction Technologies Ltd (I-T-L) achieved bp-preferred video-rich eLearning developer status in June 2006.
- ✓ Vision Enabler Ltd received a prestigious business award in France in February 2007 for implementing its breakthrough intervention process within the context of Diversity and Inclusion.

Service provision has included one-to-one executive coaching, management mentoring, meeting design and facilitation, conference design and delivery, organisational intervention design and implementation, trainers' training and knowledge sharing event reproductions.

Private Sector work with: BP, SAIC, IBM, SEMA, INSEAD, Ernst & Young, Unilever Henley Management College, and others

Public Sector work with: United Nations, ADSE and HALDE (French government bodies), Aston University, Multi-Stakeholder Forum, and others

Third Sector work with: Club Madrid (former Heads of democratic states), Sergeants, Cancer Research, Respect and others

Books authored: "The Forensics of Legal Fraud", "Being Inclusive in a Diverse World"

Costs

Brad's personal time is generally billable at £2,000 GBP per day during 2009 / 2010. A rate sheet for having I-T-L video-rich eLearning / knowledge sharing modules developed is available on request. Vision Enabler's services can be found on the web.

Thanks again for your interest.
